

Communication Update

13 July 2006

Dear Parents/Guardians

Racial Harmony Day 2006

It's Racial Harmony Day! Together with all schools in Singapore, Pathlight is celebrating this day with our students and staff.

Why: To remind ourselves about the importance of respecting and living harmoniously amongst the different races in multi-racial Singapore.

What: Racial Harmony Day activities:

- Calligraphy, ketupat weaving and Indian lamp painting
- Exhibition showcasing famous pioneers from the 4 races as well as the customs and traditions of different races
- Games and food stalls
- Sampling different delicacies during recess.

When: Friday 21 July 2006

- School hours for the day: 7.50 am to 1.00 pm for all classes, including the Secondary classes.
- No CCA in the afternoon.
- P6 classes will have their supplementary classes after school.

Who: ALL staff and students
Please come to school dressed in a traditional costume of your choice.

How You Can Help:

- By contributing traditional delicacies.
 - Please refer to Annex 1 for the food delicacies that the classes have been assigned to bring.
 - Please bring the food items before 8.30 am on 21 July 2006 and place them at the café area.
- By volunteering to help us man the stalls.

Please indicate how you can help in the Racial Harmony Day event by filling up the attached form and returning it to the class teacher by July 17 2006 (Monday).

We look forward to your support in making this event a successful one.

Yours sincerely
