Dear Parents/Guardians,

PARENT COMMUNICATION & TRAINING NIGHT
22 MAY 2008, THURSDAY

You are reminded to attend the quarterly compulsory Parent Communication & Training Night, to be held on 22 May 2008 from 7 to 9.30pm.

Parents and guardians are very important partners in providing a total education for our students, especially those with special needs.

You will be updated on the school's latest events and track highlights, which will impact your child. In addition, the evening will commence with a special segment by the educators on:

Playing your part in steering your child towards academic excellence and effective Daily Living Skills

The special segment will begin first at 7pm. Please remember to attend as the teachers and consultants have stayed back to run this session for you.

We would appreciate it if you could bring some food items to share with the other parents.

We look forward to meeting you.

Warm regards,

Ms Linda Kho
