

Developmental Disability Registry (DDR) Identity Card

Important Note to Parents

Pathlight School has been chosen as one of the DDR-registered agencies to administer the DDR ID card application. Parents, please note that this is a very important decision for you to make on behalf of your child so please consider the information carefully.

The application of the DDR ID card is fully voluntary and there is no cost involved. Being registered on the DDR would mean that confidential information about your child will be entered and stored in a central database.

While the DDR ID card has its benefits, please be aware of the potential risks of having your child carry the card as it will reflect personal information relating to your child. It is our responsibility to highlight these potential risks for you to make an informed decision.

To help you make an informed decision, we have attached the Frequently Asked Questions on the DDR ID card extracted from SG Enable's website.
